

文化庁京都府移住記念事業 きょうとハレの日、

Breath-taking skills of artisans.
Enchanting masterpieces.
Constantly refined over millennia, Kyoto's time-honoured elegance still serves as a source of inspiration for beholders.
Now the Shimadai Gallery, a typical Kyoto Machiya house and a registered tangible property in Japan hosts an exhibition/shop of traditional handicraft pieces for experiencing Kyoto's intrinsic beauty in pure refinement.

Traditional Elegance
in Pure Refinement

Admission
free

21st Kyoto Craftsmanship Exhibition

Exhibition

Sale

Master's demo

Time: 10:00 – 17:00

Date: October 21 (Saturday) and 22 (Sunday), 2023

Venue: Shimadai Gallery

Address: Northwest corner of Higashinotoin, Oike-dori, Nakagyo-ku, Kyoto-shi

Access: Subway Karasuma Oike Station
(One minute walk from Exit 1)

Shimadai Gallery
Kyoto Machiya-style house built in 1883
National Registered Tangible
Cultural Property

