

Admission
free

Kyoto Traditional Craft Council 50th anniversary

Traditional Elegance in Pure Refinement

22nd Kyoto Craftsmanship Exhibition

Master's
demo

Exhibition

Sale

Breath-taking skills of artisans.
Enchanting masterpieces.
Constantly refined over millennia, Kyoto's time-honoured elegance still serves as a source of inspiration for beholders.
Now the Shimadai Gallery, a typical Kyoto Machiya house and a registered tangible property in Japan hosts an exhibition/shop of traditional handicraft pieces for experiencing Kyoto's intrinsic beauty in pure refinement.

Date and Time:

March 16 (Saturday) 11:00-18:00 and 17 (Sunday) 11:00-17:00, 2024

Venue:

Shimadai Gallery

Address: Northwest corner of Higashinotoin, Oike-dori, Nakagyo-ku, Kyoto-shi

Access: Subway Karasuma Oike Station
(One minute walk from Exit 1)

Shimadai Gallery
Kyoto Machiya-style house built in 1883
National Registered Tangible
Cultural Property

